Lectures are delivered on Chemistry, Mineralogy, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Classical Literature and Legal and Political Science.

The Department of Law, History, Civil Polity and Political Economy, will be arranged as a part of the subgraduate course of instruction, agreeably to the intention of the founder; and will be fully entered upon as soon as the bequest of Mr. Maynard shall be productively invested. In the mean time, the services of the Professor, so far as they still continue to be a charge on the general fund of the College, will be required, as heretofore, in other departments of instruction.

There are stated and frequent exercises in Composition and Declamation, in all the classes, and in Forensic Disputation in the Senior and Junior classes.

Admission.

Candidates for admission to college, are examined on the day preceding Commencement. Applicants from a distance, however, may be examined on the last day of the ensuing vacation. No one is admissible to the Freshman class, until he has completed his fourteenth year; nor to an advanced standing, without a corresponding increase of age. Instructors are respectfully informed, that the candidates they present for the Freshman class, will be examined on the whole of the preparatory studies, or their full equivalents; and that the Faculty contemplate raising the standard of qualification for admission in future, of which seasonable notice will be given, in the catalogues of the college, from year to year. The Latin Grammar of Andrews and Stoddard is preferred in this college. A knowledge of Prosody is expected in candidates, and especially a correct accentuation in reading Latin and Greek.

Financial Regulations.

Resolved, That no student shall be permitted to enter on a second or any succeeding term, until he shall have paid, or secured to the satisfaction of the Treasurer, the fees of the preceding term.

Resolved, That no student can have an honorable dismission from this college, or certificate of his previous attendance in it, until all his bills are paid, or satisfactorily secured.

The above resolutions of the Board of Trustees were adopted in August 1837, and take effect from, and after, the beginning of the second term of the current year.

Abstract of Laws.

The members of this institution are expected to manifest, in speech and action, all proper respect and obedience to the government of the college, a gentlemanly deportment towards each other, and in all their conduct a practical compliance with the dictates of morality and the laws of the land.

In addition to these general rules, the following things are to be regarded as particularly prohibited:

1. Absence from any prescribed collegiate exercise.
2. Absence from rooms during the hours allotted to study, and after ten o'clock at night.
3. Unnecessary noise or disturbance at any hour.
4. The keeping or using of fire-arms, or gun-powder, or fire works of any kind, during term.
5. The use of ardent spirits.
6. Intoxication from any cause.
7. Playing at cards or other unlawful game.
8. Injury to the college buildings, fences, &c.
9. Absence from the town of Kirkland during term.
10. Improper deportment towards citizens, and injuries to their property.

The penalties consequent on non-compliance with the laws and regulations of college, are a series of warnings, five in number, preparatory to the separation of the offender from college, if he continue unreclaimed.

For offenses requiring more than a single warning, the offender may be placed on any part of the scale, or dismissed at once, if the nature of the offense require it.

Every warning is accompanied with a letter to the parent or guardian.

Unexceptionable deportment, and regularity, for one term, shall remove one warning from the record.

Absence from College. The portion of the year allotted to vacations is so great, as to render it quite unnecessary for the students to visit their friends during term, except for urgent and unforeseen reasons. The occasional loss of a day can not fail to have an unfavorable bearing on the intellectual habits and standing of the student. It is hoped that parents and guardians will concur with the Faculty in their opinion of the inexpediency of granting leave of absence in ordinary cases.
